Partner Liaison: Michael Usdan, Senior Fellow

The Institute for Educational Leadership (IEL) mobilizes and informs individuals and institutions that are shaping educational policy and developing educational programs. Focusing on a wide range of educational issues, from leadership development to comprehensive school reform, IEL builds and supports networks (e.g. National Alliance on the American High School, Coalition for Community Schools) and programs (e.g. Education Policy Fellowship Program, School Leadership for the 21st Century). IEL also hosts forums for dialogue and resource-sharing, and develops policy papers and research reports, including its recent review of national secondary school reforms, All Over the Map.
